

McDonald's adds 12 new items in south

NEW DELHI: McDonald's India has introduced 12 new products across its food and beverages category at its outlets in south and west India, the owner of its master franchisee for the region Westlife Development said. The company, through its subsidiary Hardcastle Restaurants Pvt Ltd (HRPL), operates 261 McDonald's outlets across 36 cities in south and west. The chain is introducing a range of 12 new products with Italian, American and Indian roots, Westlife Development said. "We believe food and flavours have no borders, and they unite people," McDonald's India Senior VP - Strategy, Innovation and Capability Seema Arora Nambiar said.