CODE OF FAIR DISCLOSURE AND CODE OF CONDUCT FOR WESTLIFE FOODWORLD LIMITED AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES INCLUDING HARDCASTLE RESTAURANTS PRIVATE LIMITED

[Under the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018]

INTRODUCTION:

“Insider trading” means dealing in securities of a company by its directors, employees or other insiders based on unpublished price sensitive information. Such dealings by insiders erode the investors’ confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavour to protect the interests of investors in general, had formulated the SEBI (Insider Trading) Regulations, 1992 under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992. These regulations came into force with effect from 19th November 1992 and the same were made applicable to all companies whose shares were listed on Indian stock exchanges. After a detailed overhauling exercise carried out by SEBI, these regulations came to be replaced by the “Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015” and further amended by the “Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018” (hereinafter referred to as “the Regulations” or “the regulations”). The Regulations undergo amendments from time to time.

Regulation 3 of the Regulation prohibits communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI), making a policy for determination of “legitimate purpose” and maintenance of digital database by the board of directors and Regulation 4 prohibits insiders from trading in listed or to-be-listed securities when in possession of UPSI.

Initial Disclosure

Pursuant to Regulation 7(1), initial disclosures of holdings of securities of the Company are to be made by each existing and also subsequent promoter, key managerial personnel and director of every listed company.

Continual Disclosure

Pursuant to Regulation 7(2), every promoter, designated person and director of every company shall disclose to the company the number of such securities, acquired or disposed of above a threshold limit of traded value in a calendar quarter, within two trading days of such transaction.

Regulation 7(3) empowers any listed company to require at its discretion any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the company in order to monitor compliance with these regulations.

The forms for making the initial and continuing disclosures are as prescribed by SEBI from time to time and may be referred separately.

Under Regulations 8 and 9, the Company is required to frame a Code of Fair Disclosure and a Code of Conduct, and these codes are set out herein.

CODE OF FAIR DISCLOSURE AND CODE OF CONDUCT

(Pursuant to Regulations 8 and 9 of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018)

This document embodies the Codes of Fair Disclosure and Conduct to ensure timely and adequate disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (as defined hereinafter) for prevention of insider trading (collectively 'the Code') to be adopted by the Company (as defined herein) and followed by their directors, officers and other employees. The Code is based on the principle that directors, officers, and employees of the Company owe a fiduciary duty to, among others, the shareholders of the Company to place the interest of the shareholders above their own and conduct their personal Securities transactions in a manner that does not create any conflict of interest situation. The Code is also intended to serve as a guiding charter for all concerned persons associated with the functioning of listed companies and their dealings in securities of such companies. Further, the Code also seeks to ensure timely and adequate disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to the investor community by the Company to enable them to take informed investment decisions with regard to the Company's Securities.

The Compliance Officer shall assist all the Employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and this Code.

The Compliance Officer shall place status reports before the Board/Vice-Chairman, detailing dealings in the Securities by the Designated Persons along with the documents that such persons had executed in accordance with the pre-dealing procedure prescribed under the Code on an annual basis.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DESIGNATED PERSONS :

Preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information:

All the Designated Persons shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information ("UPSI") coming into their possession or control.

To comply with this confidentiality obligation, the Designated Persons shall not:

- pass on UPSI to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of Securities of the Company; or
- disclose UPSI to their family members, friends, business associates or any other individual, or
- discuss UPSI in public places, or
- disclose UPSI to any Employee who does not need to know the information for discharging his or her duties, or
- recommend to anyone that they may undertake Dealing in Securities of the Company while being in possession, control or knowledge of UPSI, or
- be seen or perceived to be Dealing in Securities of the Company on the basis of unpublished UPSI.

Need to know:

The Designated Persons who are privy to unpublished UPSI, shall handle the same strictly on a “Need to Know” basis. This means the unpublished UPSI shall be disclosed only to those persons within the Company who need to know the same in the course of performance or discharge of their duty or discharge of legal obligations and whose possession of unpublished UPSI will not in any manner give rise to a conflict of interest or likelihood of misuse of the information.

All non-public information directly received by any Employee shall be immediately reported to the head of the department.

Further, as laid down by Regulation 3(2), no person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of UPSI, relating to a company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Limited access to confidential information:

The Designated Persons privy to confidential information shall, in preserving the confidentiality of information, and to prevent its wrongful dissemination, adopt among others, the following safeguards:

- files containing confidential information shall be kept secure.
- computer files must have adequate security of login through a password.
- follow the guidelines for maintenance of electronic records and systems as may be prescribed by the Compliance Officer from time-to-time in consultation with the person in charge of the information technology function.

Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

As mandated by Regulation 4 (1), no insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information:

Explanation- when a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trade would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession;

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following : -

(i) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision; provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these Regulations.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the Company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

(ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 3 of these Regulations.

(iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

(iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable Regulations.

(v) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

(a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

(b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

(vi) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with regulation 5 of the Regulations.

TRADING WINDOW:

All Designated Persons shall be subject to the following trading restrictions:-

(a) The Company's shares can be traded only during the trading period. The trading period shall remain closed from the end of every quarter for any of the following events (this list is illustrative and not exhaustive):

- i. Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually)
- ii. Declaration of dividend
- iii. Issue of securities by way of public / rights / bonus etc.
- iv. Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects
- v. Amalgamation, mergers, acquisitions, takeovers and buy back of shares
- vi. Disposal of whole or substantially the whole of the Company.
- vii. Any changes in policies, plans or operations of the Company
- viii. Acquisition, de- merger, restructuring, scheme of arrangement, spin-off of divisions etc.
- ix. Consolidation / splitting of shares
- x. Voluntary de-listing of shares by the Company
- xi. Forfeiture of shares
- xii. ADR / GDR or any other class of securities to be issued abroad
- xiii. Cancellation of dividend/right/bonus etc.

Apart from the aforesaid closure of the Trading Window , the Compliance Officer (in consultation with the management) shall intimate a longer period of closure of Trading Window for the above on a case-to- case basis after taking into account the sensitivity of the event / case.

The Compliance Officer shall take all reasonable steps to inform the concerned persons in advance about the date of closing and opening of the Trading Window. The Trading Window shall be opened forty eight hours after the information referred to the above is made public. The gap between clearance of accounts by Audit Committee and the Board Meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

(b) During the period of closure of the Trading Window the Designated Persons shall not trade in the Company's securities.

(c) All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid Trading Window.

(d) In case of ESOPs, exercise of option shall not be considered to be "trading" except for the purpose of Chapter III of the Regulations. However, the other provisions of the Regulations shall apply to the sale of shares so acquired.

For example:

- (i) If a designated person has sold/ purchased shares, he can subscribe and exercise ESOPs at any time after such sale/purchase, without attracting contra trade restrictions.
- (ii) Where a designated person acquires shares under an ESOP and subsequently sells/pledges those shares, such sale shall not be considered as contra trade, with respect to exercise of ESOPs.
- (iii) Where a designated person purchases some shares (say on August 01, 2015), acquires shares later under an ESOP (say on September 01, 2015) and subsequently sells/pledges (say on October 01, 2015) shares so acquired under ESOP, the sale will not be a contra trade but will be subject other provisions of the Regulations, however, he will not be able to sell the shares purchased on August 01, 2015 during the period of six months from August 01, 2015.
- (iv) Where a designated person sells shares (say on August 01, 2015), acquires shares later under an ESOP (say on September 01, 2015) the acquisition under ESOP shall not be a contra trade. Further, he can sell/pledge shares so acquired at any time thereafter without attracting contra trade restrictions. He, however, will not be able to purchase further shares during the period of six months from August 01, 2015 when he had sold shares.

Trading Plans

As permitted by Regulation 5,

(1) An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

(2) However, such trading plan shall:-

(i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;

(ii) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

(iii) set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:

(i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;

(ii) nature of the trade;

(iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;

(iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:

a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;

b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.

Explanation:

(i) While the parameters in sub-clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) shall be mandatorily mentioned for each trade, the parameter in sub-clause (iv) shall be optional. (ii) The price limit in sub-clause (iv) shall be rounded off to the nearest numeral. (iii) Insider may make adjustments, with the approval of the compliance officer, in the number of securities and price limit in the event of corporate actions related to bonus issue and stock split occurring after the approval of trading plan and the same shall be notified on the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.

(vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

Compliance in respect of information, trades and Trading Window, with Regulation 9 read with Schedule B of the Regulations

1. The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, or to the Chairman of the Board of directors at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board of directors, but not less than once a year.
2. All information shall be handled within the organisation on a need-to-know basis and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. There shall be implemented appropriate Chinese Walls procedures, and processes for permitting any Designated Person to “cross the wall”.
3. Designated persons and immediate relatives of designated persons in the organization shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.
4. Designated Persons may execute trades subject to compliance with the Regulations. Towards this end, the Trading Window as herein shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the Designated Persons. The Trading Window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such UPSI relates. Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the Trading Window is closed. For unpublished price sensitive information not emanating from within the Company, trading window may not be closed. Trading restriction period shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.
The gap between clearance of accounts by the Audit Committee and Board Meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.
5. The timing for re-opening of the Trading Window shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
6. When the Trading Window is open, trading by Designated Persons shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above such thresholds as the board of directors of the Company may stipulate.

7. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any UPSI. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

8. The period, within which a Designated Person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade, shall be within six months. The Compliance Officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the Regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the SEBI Act.

Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of options.

9. The formats as the Board of Directors of the Company deems necessary for making applications for pre-clearance, reporting of trades executed, reporting of decisions not to trade after securing pre-clearance, and for reporting level of holdings in securities at such intervals as may be determined as being necessary to monitor compliance with the Regulations are annexed hereto as listed below.

10. Structured Digital Database : Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- (a) immediate relatives
- (b) persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
- (c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation–The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated persons during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.

11. The Company shall have a process for how and when people are brought 'inside' on sensitive transactions. Individuals should be made aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of Inside Information, and the liability that attaches to misuse or unwarranted use of such information – attached as 'Annexure - I' .

OTHER REPORTING REQUIREMENTS:

All Designated Persons shall be required to forward the following details to the Compliance Officer:

(a) Initial and annual and/or as and when the information changes disclosure to be made by the Designated Person to the Company under the Regulations- annexed herewith as per Annexure - A.

(b) Each and every execution of transaction involving *1,001 (one thousand and one) shares or more in the Company (hereinafter referred to as the "threshold limit").

Amended by the Board of Directors by approved at its meeting held on 3rd February, 2017.*

(c) All Designated Persons who intend to deal in securities of the Company over and above the threshold limit shall get their transaction(s) pre-cleared by making an application-cum-undertaking in the format annexed herewith as per Annexure - B to the Compliance Officer.

(d) The Compliance Officer, on receipt of the above application-cum-undertaking, shall process the same and either give his approval to the same or refuse the same, in the format annexed herewith as Annexure-C.

(e) The Compliance Officer shall, on an annual basis, make reports on dealings in the securities of the Company to the Board of Directors, in the format annexed herewith as Annexure-D.

(f) Reporting of trade executed, reporting of decisions not to trade after securing pre-clearance shall be in the format annexed herewith as Annexure-E.

(g) Details mentioned in the format annexed as “Annexure-J” (being the same as Annexure A to SEBI Circular Ref. No. SEBI/HO/ISD/CIR/P/2019/82 dated 19th July, 2019) - Reporting by the Company to SEBI of violation of Code of Conduct under the Regulations by Designated Persons and Immediate Relatives – standardising the process for reporting of violation of Code of Conduct under the Regulations.

All the above details with the accompanying documents will be placed by the Compliance Officer before the Board of Directors on an annual basis, or as and when such dealings happen.

PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES:

All Designated Persons who intend to deal, on their behalf and / or on behalf of their dependent family members, at or above the threshold limit of the Company in any calendar year, should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as described hereunder.

An application may be made in the prescribed format to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Persons intend to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be specified in this behalf.

Along with the request for pre-clearance of transaction, an undertaking shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Persons.

OTHER TRADING RESTRICTIONS:

All Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If order is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the employee/director must pre-clear the transaction again.

All Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into a contra trade (i.e. an opposite transaction) i.e., sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. No Designated Persons shall take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.

However, where contra trade of securities is necessitated due to bonafide reasons, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard.

PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT:

- (a) Any Designated Person who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities in contravention of the Code of Conduct may be penalized and the Company may take appropriate action.
- (b) Any Designated Person who violates the code of conduct shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback etc. ineligibility for participation in future employee stock plans etc.
- (c) The action by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.
- (d) In case it is observed by the Company / Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, the same should be brought to the notice of SEBI immediately.
- (e) In the event of any amendment in the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 or issuance of any clarification relating to prohibition of insider trading, such amendment / clarification shall be deemed to be adopted by the Company and in case of any conflict between the provisions of the Codes and the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, the latter shall prevail.

Principles of Fair Disclosure for purposes of Code of Practices and Procedures for Fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, in compliance with Regulation 8 read with Schedule A of the Regulations.

The Company shall follow the practices and procedures below for fair disclosure of UPSI in order to adhere to the said Principles :

1. The Company shall make prompt public disclosure of UPSI that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available.

2. The Company shall make uniform and universal dissemination of UPSI to avoid selective disclosure.
